

Teacher of Philosophy, Religion and Ethics
Required for September 2022 or sooner
Full time
Salary Range MPS1-UPS3 plus Fringe allowance

Our vision is to develop world class students who have the belief in themselves that anything is possible and go on to lead happy and successful lives. If you feel that you too could play a part in helping us achieve that vision, for every student, then this could be the role for you.

The Misbourne is an aspirational and friendly place to work where every student and member of staff is a valued member of our community. Whether you are starting out in your career or looking for your next challenge, our Humanities faculty has a breadth and depth of experience, with colleagues who thrive in a hard-working and innovative team built over many years. With strong and consistent leadership, you can be assured of a genuine commitment to supporting your day-to-day practice and long-term professional development. Philosophy, Religion and Ethics is a very popular and successful subject at both GCSE and at A-level and this is an exciting opportunity for the right colleague to join us helping to shape and develop the subject onto the next phase in its development.

We are an 11-18 school in the picturesque village of Great Missenden in the heart of the Chilterns. We have just over 1000 students on roll including a successful and growing Sixth Form.

We can offer you:

- Students who are a pleasure to teach.
- An experienced, friendly and collaborative team.
- The opportunity to teach this popular subject from Key Stage 3 to Key Stage 5
- A well-resourced curriculum area
- A supportive approach to workload that removes onerous marking requirements and prioritises whole class feedback.
- An evidence informed approach to school improvement, only implementing what we feel will make the biggest difference to the lives and outcomes of young people, mindful of staff workload and well-being.
- A genuine commitment to support your career development through a CPDL programme, described by Ofsted as 'exemplary', and more INSET days than average.
- Your own laptop in addition to a desktop PC in your own dedicated classroom.

This post would suit an ECT or a more experienced teacher.
