Teacher of Psychology

Part time or full time with the ability to teach another subject
MPS/UPS/NQT
Salary dependent upon qualifications and experience

We are seeking to recruit an inspiring and talented individual to teach this increasingly popular subject at A Level; Psychology is a thriving subject at The Forest School. The teachers are passionate about Psychology and students enjoy the subject. The department is well led and gains excellent results at A level. The successful candidate will have a proven track record of exceptional results, a passion for the subject and a willingness to participate in the extracurricular life of the department and the school.

We are a boy's secondary school for students aged 11-18 with a co-educational 6th Form. Staff at the Forest School teach in modern, well equipped classrooms and are offered a tailored CPD programme. Staff are allocated a laptop, have access to the school's sporting facilities as well as the lively staff social calendar. The school has continued to invest in new technology with projects including a brand new school WiFi network, Show My Homework, GCSE Pod, Chromebooks for students to support learning and reduce staff workload. The school's drive on technology was invaluable during the lockdowns as the school had already established Google classroom. The school has a newly refurbished Core subject block with each classroom having an interactive whiteboard. In addition, we have invested in our all facilities across the school: new heating system reducing our carbon footprint, revamped technology including food room, whole school repainted, new interactive whiteboards, in addition to sporting facilities; building a upgraded our indoor swimming pool, invested in our sports hall, all weather pitches: MUGA, an all-weather football dome

During our last Ofsted Inspection, the school was rated 'Good'. Staff wellbeing is paramount to us and we are working towards being 'Outstanding'.

The Forest School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of students and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All appointments are subject to an Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service clearance being received.
