Headteacher's Welcome

As the headteacher of Parkstone Grammar School, it is my great pleasure to welcome you to our vibrant and dynamic school community. At Parkstone, we are committed to providing an exceptional educational experience that nurtures the intellectual, social, and emotional growth of every student.

We are a heavily oversubscribed 11-18 selective girls' school offering outstanding education to the students of Poole and its surrounding area. Founded in 1905, Parkstone has continued to provide excellent academic results within a warm, friendly and vibrant community. We are a six-form entry school with 1250 students including 350 in the sixth form.

Our school is a place where students are encouraged to explore their passions, expand their knowledge, and develop critical thinking skills that will serve them well throughout their lives. We have a team of dedicated and highly qualified teachers and support staff who are passionate about education and are committed to inspiring and challenging our students.

We believe in creating a supportive and inclusive environment where each student feels valued and respected. Our students are rightly proud of their school which provides for them a broad and balanced curriculum promoting independence, intellectual curiosity and a love of learning. Subjects offered at GCSE and A Level include academic and facilitating subjects from a very wide range. Our sixth form collaboration with Poole Grammar School for Boys allows us to offer an extensive A Level curriculum.

Students at Parkstone are not only encouraged to succeed academically, but to enjoy the wide range of musical, theatrical, sporting, speaking and charitable opportunities. They thrive in an environment of support and challenge, becoming resilient learners well prepared to succeed in the 21st Century.

The unique single-sex selective environment allows the students to grow in a safe and supportive atmosphere. Parkstone's national reputation for excellence and continued success is testament to the consistent dedication of students, staff and governors.

Ofsted commented that Parkstone offers a 'stimulating, friendly community in which all students are valued and may thrive intellectually, emotionally and physically'. Our school's focus is always on teaching and learning as we strive to challenge these able students to become confident, happy and successful young people.

I invite you to apply to our school, and experience the warm and welcoming atmosphere that makes Parkstone truly special. If you're ready to embark on a rewarding journey where your passion for education meets limitless possibilities, we encourage you to explore the opportunities at Parkstone. Join us in making a difference to our young people and shaping the future together.

David Hallsworth, Headteacher

Safeguarding

Parkstone Grammar School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

All shortlisted candidates will be required to complete a Criminal Records Self-Declaration Form. This will allow the school to identify whether you may be ineligible for a role based on barring or a section 128 direction.

Any successful applicant will be required to undertake an Enhanced DBS Check with Children's Barred List information. They will also be required to provide the relevant criminal record checks for time spent living or working outside of the UK within the last 10 years. Applicants can find further information via gov.uk. Please note that any cost for these checks will not be covered by the school.

Further information on safer recruitment processes can be found on our website and we encourage you to read these before submitting your application. Alternatively, please contact our HR Manager if you have any questions by calling the school on 01202 605605.

Our Child Protection Safeguarding Policy can be found on our school website.

Teacher of Religion and Philosophy

(between 0.7 - 0.8 FTE)

DETAILS OF THE POST

This post is available from September 2025. We are looking to appoint an outstanding teacher to teach KS3, GCSE and A Level Religion and Philosophy. Our students are academically able and well-motivated and achieve excellent results.

We are seeking a colleague who enjoys working in a team, can provide a stimulating atmosphere in the classroom and inspire our students to give of their best. All teachers are expected to act as form tutors. Enthusiasm, patience and calmness under pressure are vital qualities. Please see the attached Person Specification for further details of our requirements.

THE DEPARTMENT

This post offers excellent prospects for a committed and enthusiastic candidate to work in an exceptional and innovative Religion and Philosophy Department.

Religion and Philosophy is taught by a flourishing department in a school which places high value on the development of thinking and of the individual. As Religion and Philosophy is an exploration of the diverse value systems, both religious and non-religious, in our society, the subject is taught from an objective, non-confessional, standpoint. Students may be of any religious persuasion or of none.

CURRICULUM

Religion and Philosophy is a popular academic subject at GCSE and A Level. Years 7 and 8 are taught in form groups with both year groups currently having three 60-minute lessons a fortnight.

In Year 9, 10 and 11 Religion and Philosophy is an option subject, with students receiving three 60-minute lessons per fortnight in Year 9 and four 60-minute lessons a fortnight in Years 10 and 11. Students follow the WJEC Eduqas Route A: 1: Religious, Philosophical and Ethical Studies in the Modern World, focusing on Christianity and Islam.

In addition to GCSE classes, students receive one hour per fortnight of Religious Education in Years 9 and 10. This is a non-examined course which explores perennial and contemporary religious and philosophical questions with regards to what it means to be fully human.

At A level, students follow the OCR syllabus in Religious Studies (H573) with a focus on Developments in Buddhist Thought as the third component. All A Level students receive nine 60-minute lessons a fortnight. In 2023, 90% of year 13 students secured A*-B grades.

In 2024, 77% of year 11 students secured 9-7 grades, 51% achieved grades 9-8. At A Level, 43% of our students achieved A*-A and 100% achieved A*-C. The department has a long-standing tradition of sending students to read Philosophy and Theology at leading universities including Oxford and Cambridge.

We are looking to appoint an outstanding teacher who can inspire and bring out the best in all our students. Enthusiasm, vision and a passion for the subject, particularly Philosophy of Religion, are all desirable attributes. Please see the attached Person Specification for further details of our requirements.

Person Specification

We are seeking a highly skilled colleague who will be dynamic and committed to the school. The qualities/skills/experience we are looking for include:

- excellent academic/professional qualifications
- excellent subject knowledge and an awareness of current developments in the subject
- an ability to teach Buddhism at A Level would be desirable though not essential
- the highest possible expectations of standards of behaviour and attainment
- a proven record of success in teaching Religion and Philosophy - ECT applications are welcomed
- the ability to demonstrate enthusiasm and passion for the subject
- the ability to use data on student achievement as effectively as possible
- ICT skills that enable you to make the best use of new technology to support teaching and learning
- excellent inter-personal skills
- the ability to work well within a team and contribute to planning of schemes of work
- a willingness to carry out coursework supervision and marking
- an excellent rapport with both students and colleagues
- decision-making skills
- excellent communication and presentation skills
- the ability to work effectively under pressure
- a commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of students
- a commitment to the wider life of the school
- a commitment to equality of opportunity
- a commitment to continuous improvement and professional development
- boundless energy and a sense of humour!
