Join us on our amazing adventure to make THE difference

“The school provides high quality pastoral care” - Ofsted 2023

Are you driven by a passionate belief that excellent schooling is the right of every child?

Do you believe that we must never accept that personal circumstances, socio-economic background or prior attainment will inevitably limit young people’s potential?

Are you committed to the transformational power of education to shape lives and futures?

If so, we want to hear from you!

Due to an increasing school roll, we are seeking an inspiring and dedicated Religious Studies teacher to join our team at Alvaston Moor Academy. The ideal candidate will be passionate about engaging students, fostering a deep understanding of religious and ethical perspectives, and helping them develop strong critical thinking, communication, and analytical skills. With a commitment to delivering high-quality lessons, you will inspire curiosity, reflection, and a love for learning, ensuring every student has the opportunity to thrive and reach their full potential.

We’re looking for professionals who are ambitious but humble, innovative but research-led, and warm and compassionate, with unapologetically high standards, to join us on our mission to take Alvaston Moor Academy in Derby from its current position to become one of the very best schools in the country.

In a community where almost 70% of pupils qualify for pupil premium funding, for more than a generation the school has struggled to consistently be the great school it can be, and that its young people, their parents and the community of Alvaston are entitled to.

In the last decade the school has seen periods of real improvement, but progress has often not survived changes in leadership, and positive changes have proved short-lived.

In 2021 Alvaston Moor began its latest journey of improvement as part of Archway Learning Trust. Once again improvement has come – recently recognised by Ofsted – but this time there is no alternative to ensuring that it is sustainable. And more than this, that the school finally delivers on its potential, demonstrates to its community, the city of Derby and the whole world that our children have as much potential as children anywhere.

Do you want to be:

- part of this story?
- part of the team that breaks the cycle of hard-won improvement followed by debilitating turbulence?
- part of the team that delivers on a promise to a community that has never stopped wanting, but might have stopped expecting, the best for their children?
- part of a team serving a community that, put simply, deserve the very best?

If this sounds right for you. If you have the passion, the grit and the resilience to embark on this journey with us and you're looking to take the next step in your career – we want to hear from you!

Archway Learning Trust, previously Bluecoat Academies Trust was formed in April 2014 as a result of the very long and successful history of Bluecoat Academy. We welcomed three further secondary schools in Derby to the Trust in 2021 and opened Bluecoat Trent Academy, a secondary Free School in Nottingham in September 2021.

The Trust now comprises of Bluecoat Aspley Academy, Bluecoat Sixth Form, Bluecoat Wollaton Academy, Bluecoat Beechdale Academy, Bluecoat Primary Academy, The Nottingham Emmanuel School and Sixth Form, Bluecoat Trent Academy, The Long Eaton School, Lees Brook Academy, Alvaston Moor Academy and the Bluecoat SCITT Alliance (School Centred Initial Teacher Training).

The successful candidate will be dedicated to supporting students and actively contributing to academy life. They will excel in engaging with students, fostering their understanding of Religious Studies, and will demonstrate strong communication skills to inspire and motivate learners. Their commitment to teaching excellence will help enhance the overall educational experience within the academy.

(Possible TLR For Foundation Curriculum Lead)

The post holder, working with the Vice Principal for Quality of Education will have the empowerment to design an intervention program which is supportive, nurturing and developmental. In addition, the post holder will work closely with the SENCo and senior leaders to plan and run intervention for students who require further support in literacy and numeracy.

To be successful in this post, the post holder could have had success as a KS2 teacher and have an outstanding knowledge of phonics and developmental numeracy. They must also be able to demonstrate a knowledge of SEND and the use of intervention as a mechanism for improving student progress and achievement.

Above all, we are looking for someone who can be agile in their working practice, is a self-starter and has a deep passion for teaching and learning and the transformative power of outstanding education.

The growth and development of our Multi-Academy Trust makes this an excellent opportunity to join us, as we seek to serve a growing number of young people across the region.

In return we can offer:

- Archway benefits to include shopping discounts and competitions
- A free and confidential employee assistance programme offering counselling and advice
- Access to Teachers' Pensions / Generous pension scheme
- Access to discounted travel schemes
- Cycle to work scheme
- Comprehensive training and support
- Opportunities to develop new skills and progress your career
- Eye care voucher scheme
- Free flu vaccine
- Access to e-learning and development

Staff will be expected to take part in an induction day which has a safeguarding focus. Staff will also be expected to undertake CPL Safeguarding Training throughout every academic year.

There is a clear policy for staff conduct which all employees must adhere to.

We are an equal opportunities employer.

Welcome from the Principal – Miss Gemma Tyers

Thank you for considering joining the Alvaston Moor Academy community. As Principal, I am immensely proud of the vibrant, inclusive, and forward-thinking environment we have cultivated here. Our academy is a place where students thrive academically, socially, and emotionally, and our dedicated staff are at the very heart of that success.

At Alvaston Moor, we are passionate about providing choice and opportunity to our students. Our vision is based on the belief that with hard work, everyone can achieve. We want and expect only the best for our students, and we will go above and beyond to ensure that this is the case. We believe every child is unique and can be successful and we have high expectations of all. The education opportunities provided allow every child to make the best possible progress whilst at Alvaston Moor Academy, preparing them well for the next stage of their life. Our staff are determined to demonstrate that there are no barriers to learning and that all young people can be successful in their own way, regardless of their background. We consistently strive to help our students to become better learners; to increase their resilience and to raise their aspirations.

At Alvaston Moor, we are deeply committed to providing a supportive and collaborative atmosphere for all our team members. We value innovation, encourage professional development, and celebrate the unique contributions that each individual brings to our school. Whether you're just starting your career or seeking a new challenge, you'll find a welcoming and inspiring workplace where your passion for education will flourish.

We are looking for ambitious staff who will lead by example. We expect all staff to be leaders, whether within their own classroom or within the leadership structure of the school. We expect staff to show an uncompromisingly high drive to succeed and the focus of all staff must be on the relentless desire to improve Teaching and Learning. Whether it's progressing on to university, securing an apprenticeship, or entering the workplace, we want every young person who leaves Alvaston Moor Academy to have choice and opportunity.

Staff from Alvaston Moor Academy regularly have the chance to work together with others across the trust, to share ideas and best practice, to collaborate, seek advice and to learn from each other.

We believe that every child deserves the very best, and we are looking for exceptional individuals who share our drive to make a difference. If you're ready to join a team that is united in its mission to empower and uplift young minds, we'd love to hear from you. Together, let's shape a brighter future for our students and our community.

Warm regards,

Miss Gemma Tyers

- Set and mark home learning in accordance with Academy and departmental policies;
- Participate in meetings with colleagues and/or parents/carers with regard to the above responsibilities.

TEACHER RESPONSIBILITIES

- Have a thorough and up to date knowledge of their subject(s) and should take account of wider curriculum developments that are relevant to their work;
- Consistently and effectively plan lessons and sequences of lessons to meet students' individual learning needs, including students with special educational needs, and gifted or talented students. They should be aware of, and take proper account of the strategies agreed in IEPs (Individual Education Plans) and IBPs (Individual Behaviour Plans);
- Keep an attendance register of students in every lesson and following up absence when necessary;
- Consistently and effectively use a range of appropriate strategies for teaching and classroom management;
- Consistently and effectively use information about prior attainment to set well-grounded expectations for students, and monitor progress to give clear and constructive feedback;
- Be able to make use of the performance data available in the Academy in order to determine how much progress their students are making;
- Take responsibility for their own professional development and use the outcomes to improve their teaching and students' learning;
- Make an active contribution to implementing the policies and aspirations of the Academy and Trust;
- Be effective professionals who challenge and support all students to do their best;
- Set and maintain high expectations for student behaviour;
- Set a good example to students, for example in terms of appropriate dress, standards of punctuality and attendance.

GENERAL NOTES

- The aforementioned responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document and the Conditions of Service ("Burgundy Book") and are additional to the general duties and responsibilities of a Teacher;
- These accountabilities do not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and no part of it may be so construed;
- These accountabilities are not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed at least once per year and it may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the holder of the post.

STAFF CONDUCT

- All employees are expected to familiarise themselves and follow the Trust vision and ethos during their working lives with Archway Learning Trust.
- We are professional people and expect professional conduct (behaviour and language) based on mutual respect, good manners, politeness and common courtesies for all members of our community. We expect that at all times employees behave in a manner that role models positive behaviours for our students to follow.
- Physical violence, verbal abuse and swearing are unacceptable and not tolerated.
- Employees are expected to maintain a professional relationship with students.
- Staff will be fully supported by the Trust at all times in carrying out the behaviour policy.

DRESS CODE

- The Trust expect staff to wear professional business dress mirroring our high expectations of our student dress code.

Welcome from the CEO

Archway Learning Trust is a vibrant learning community where students are cared for, receive a high quality education and experience every opportunity to be successful.

School years are amongst the most important in our lives, helping us to develop the knowledge, skills and characteristics we need to succeed. At Archway Learning Trust, we are committed to giving every child the very best start that we can. We offer outstanding teaching and learning and exceptional personal support in an inclusive, faith based environment. I became a teacher because I believe in equal opportunities for everyone.

I also believe that every child has the right to an excellent education. Learning is at the heart of any good society and the opportunity to learn from teachers who are committed, enthusiastic and innovative is a right that all children should have.

Our mission is to help children to understand and believe in themselves, respect and care for others and to develop a wide understanding of faith, the world around them and their place within it. The determination of our youngsters to succeed, and the passion of our teachers to make a difference, makes me proud to be Chief Executive Officer of this diverse and dynamic family of Trust's.

About the Trust

Archway Learning Trust, previously Bluecoat Academies Trust was formed in April 2014 as a result of the very long and successful history of Bluecoat Academy.

The Trust comprises of Bluecoat Aspley Academy, Bluecoat Sixth Form, Bluecoat Wollaton Academy, Bluecoat Beechdale Academy, Bluecoat Primary Academy, Bluecoat Bentinck Primary Academy, The Nottingham Emmanuel School and Sixth Form, The Long Eaton School, Lees Brook Academy, Alvaston Moor Academy, Bluecoat Trent Academy and the Bluecoat SCITT Alliance (School Centred Initial Teacher Training).

Our aim as a Trust is to shine a spotlight nationally and internationally on our inclusive ethos so that more schools and academies can be encouraged to take up our approach to inclusive, enriching, knowledge based teaching, preparing young people for lifelong learning based firmly on our Christian principles.

The growth of the Trust is a truly exciting time for prospective candidates who are looking to further their careers in a dynamic learning community that has opportunity at every point to share and learn from each other in order to become the best that we can be.

We are proud of our diverse student population and passionate to create a staff team reflective of this diversity. We actively welcome applications from all backgrounds and you can be assured of a warm welcome at Archway.

Our Schools

Bluecoat Aspley Academy

Bluecoat Academy Aspley is the largest school in the Trust and was the founder of Archway Learning Trust (previously known as Bluecoat Academies Trust). The Academy is both distinctively Christian and inclusive with all students being part of a large, diverse and multi-ethnic family that we are very proud to be a part of. Bluecoat Aspley Academy is a School of Sanctuary, welcoming students and families from all backgrounds.

The Nottingham Emmanuel School

The Nottingham Emmanuel School is a Church of England secondary and Sixth Form, with 1,000 students, including over 140 in the Sixth Form. The £25 million site is located near the banks of the River Trent in West Bridgford. The School is a diverse community, serving families and students from every academic, social, faith and ethnic background. Emmanuel has been praised nationally for its outstanding work as an effective, inclusive Church school.

Bluecoat SCITT

Based at Bluecoat Aspley Academy, the Bluecoat SCITT offers school based Teacher training in a range of schools and subjects. As an accredited provider of school based teacher training, we are committed to training outstanding teachers to work within the East Midlands region. Our comprehensive one year School Direct Training Programme is offered for both Primary and Secondary trainees, as well as a salaried option in certain subjects.

Bluecoat SCITT Alliance Nottingham

Bluecoat Trent Academy

The Bluecoat Trent Academy opened its doors in September 2021 with the founding cohort of Year 7 pupils. BTA is an 11-16, non-faith school. The new build for the academy will be built on the former site of Clarendon College, on the edge of Forest Fields, close to Mapperley Park. Whilst the new academy is being constructed BTA will, for the first two years, be based in its own building on the site of Bluecoat Aspley Academy on Aspley Lane. The school will be underpinned by the ethos of all the Archway academies whilst establishing its own unique vision and values.

Bluecoat Bentinck Primary Academy

Bluecoat Bentinck Primary Academy officially joined of Archway Learning Trust in September 2023, becoming our second primary academy. The school has a proud and rich history of serving the children and community of Nottingham since 1880; we are delighted to be part of its next chapter! Bluecoat Bentinck is a popular, diverse and multi-cultural Academy in the heart of Nottingham City. The Academy's vision of 'Together We Make a Difference' underpins our commitment to work together to achieve our common purpose of transforming lives of the children we serve. Staff at Bentinck are committed to supporting and teaching the diverse cohort of learners, creating the conditions to enable all children to thrive in their education. Bentinck is a happy, calm and welcoming place to be where children are kind, respectful and are proud to represent Bluecoat Bentinck.
