King Edward VI School Lichfield is seeking an enthusiastic and talented English teacher to join an exceptional department. With the majority of students entered for the GCSE qualification and 66% of students awarded grades at 9-4; and nearly 20% of grades at 9-7 in 2025, you will be joining a high-performing, collaborative department. Religious Studies is popular and successful from Key Stage 3 through to our thriving, successful Sixth Form.

We are looking for a teacher with infectious enthusiasm, excellent communication skills with an ability to develop and maintain positive relationships with students, colleagues and parents. We expect the successful candidate to work as part of a team and be willing to participate in all aspects of school life.

King Edward VI School is a popular 11-18 comprehensive school rated Good by OfSTED in 2022 with recognition of outstanding practice and a highly positive ethos. The school is well-regarded within the community and has a reputation for high quality teaching. Lichfield is a small, vibrant cathedral city which is easily accessible from the surrounding areas.
