THE SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Samuel Whitbread Academy is a large, rural upper school with approximately 1,700 students including a Sixth Form approaching 450 students. The school is situated on the outskirts of the village of Shefford, in Bedfordshire, and has all the variety and energy of a fully comprehensive secondary school. In October 2017 the Academy was inspected and judged as Good, with Outstanding features by Ofsted. Since then, we have continued to improve and are constantly striving to develop our practice and raise levels of achievement.

The size of the Academy and membership of the Trust mean that opportunities available to staff are incredibly varied and wide-ranging. We have a growing reputation for developing an exciting and innovative culture of research within the Academy. We are also a member of SUPER, a research based school improvement network of similarly minded schools, led by Cambridge University, and offer both a Masters and PhD programme through the University. The Trust also includes a Training School and has an Outstanding Nursery (Ofsted 2012) onsite which is available to staff.

The Science Department at Samuel Whitbread Academy is striving for excellence in all areas. We currently have results above national average for Separate Science and are looking to match this in Combined Science next year.

Teaching is usually split between two teachers in Year 9, 10 and 11. This results in most teachers teaching their specialist subject for the majority of classes and the sharing of teaching the one unit outside each staff members specialism.

Our shared goal is to contribute towards the success of the Academy and to achieve outstanding outcomes for our students. To achieve this goal we need to be contributing a positive P8 from our exam results. In order to accomplish this, we have been improving our shared bank of resources such as our differentiated scheme of learning and homeworks. Each year we reflect upon the success of each unit and work together to develop it further. This reduces our planning time and allows the Teacher more time to adapt the scheme to their individual classes and provides an opportunity to provide feedback.

You will be joining a large welcoming team of teaching staff and four Science Technicians, all of whom have a wealth of experience. Within the Science Department we have 14 laboratories which are equipped with both interactive whiteboards and dry wipe boards. There are visualisers which can be booked by staff and in addition we have a bank of 60 Science dedicated Google Chromebooks.

As a Department we are pleased with the progress we have made in recent years and we are looking for people with a passion for teaching and learning, who want to make a difference, to join us.
