

Secondary Teacher of Science (Chemistry)

MPS/UPS (Inner London) TLR possible for right candidate. Full Time, permanent.

We want someone with the knowledge and skills to work with staff to lead and drive academic standards, to inspire our pupils to become the best possible version of themselves and to achieve outcomes that lay strong foundations for their future success. Our pupils are happy, confident young people; we are an experienced, caring and inclusive team, it's our responsibility to see they excel.

Woodmansterne School & Sixth Form is a diverse and vibrant community; we benefit from this rich variety of cultures and traditions within the community we serve. We are a unique all-through school (Nursery to Year 13), looking to appoint an exceptional Teacher of Science, who shares our values and determination to deliver an excellent, inclusive education to our young people.

We are looking for an excellent Teacher of Science (Chemistry) with:

- very high expectations of what can be achieved;
- a proven track record in raising pupil attainment (particularly in Chemistry);
- experience at teaching KS5 (preferable);
- an understanding of how children learn and the complexities of this process;
- the aspiration to work with young people, colleagues and parents;
- the skills to work successfully as a team member establishing effective working relationships and flexible working practices;
- experience of following direction and working in collaboration with colleagues, parents, pupils and the school community;
- strong interpersonal skills, with the ability to build positive relationships, and a positive can-do attitude;
- a creative and innovative approach to school improvement;
- the ability to lead on the educational progress, achievement and enrichment experience (trips, rewards and clubs);
- the ability to be kind, positive and committed to the school's inclusive ethos;
- the ability to be flexible, calm, work under pressure and manage change effectively

Our strong and experienced leadership team are committed to providing an exceptional, enriching education for all our young people so that they can be the very best version of themselves.

Closing date: 9am, Monday 17th November 2025

Interviews: Week Commencing 17th November 2025

To start: April 2026 or earlier if possible

We reserve the right to close this vacancy early if we receive sufficient applications for the role. Therefore, if you are interested, please submit your application as early as possible.

You can find out more about our school and the post by visiting our website www.woodmansterne.london; we also welcome visits. Additional, essential information can be found on the website: Recruitment tab where you will find an applicant pack. Please email your completed application to: recruitment@woodmansterne.london

Woodmansterne School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff, volunteers or external agencies to share this commitment. Successful candidates will be asked to apply for an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check. Further information can be found at www.gov.uk Woodmansterne School is an equal opportunities employer and particularly encourages applications from Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic candidates, as these groups are underrepresented throughout education nationally.