- To follow departmental policy and practice as described in the relevant Faculty handbook.

Curriculum

- To contribute to department planning and curriculum development.

- To keep up-to-date with national developments in curriculum design and pedagogy.
- To contribute to the development of teaching materials and schemes of work for use throughout the department.

Student personal development and well-being

- To promote good standards of personal conduct and behaviour so that effective learning can take place.
- To ensure that the school follow relevant national policies on safeguarding, thus allowing students to be healthy and safe at school.
- To promote good attendance and punctuality to lessons.
- To promote the personal development of students through engagement in a range of extra-curricular opportunities.

Management of Staff

- To ensure that teaching assistants or support staff are employed effectively within the classroom.

Relationships with key stakeholders

- To foster positive relationships throughout the school community.
- To develop effective relationships with parents which focus on students' learning and progress.
- To develop positive relationships with the local community, including employers, outside agencies and the LA.
- To establish and maintain productive relationships with the department.

Other duties

- To undertake any further duties as outlined by the Headteacher provided that they are reasonable and appropriate.
