CLARIFICATION NOTES ON THE EXERCISE OF PROFESSIONAL DUTIES FOR ALL TEACHERS, OTHER THAN HEADTEACHERS

These notes should be read with the Teachers Pay and Conditions Document. All teachers should act under the reasonable direction of the headteacher, and carry out the particular duties assigned to them.

All teachers are responsible for planning, preparation, assessment, recording and reporting on progress and attainment. They will receive 10% release time against their timetabled teaching commitment, for planning preparation and assessment, and this time may not be taken by the school to use for any other purpose.

They must co-operate with the headteacher and other teachers in the school on all aspects of education.

All teachers must participate in arrangements for appraisal of their own and others' performance, and have a responsibility to participate in arrangements for further training and professional development.

Supervising students at the beginning and end of the day as well as at break time comes within directed time. A rota will make 'reasonable' use of all teachers to provide appropriate supervision of students at these times.

All teachers must participate in arrangements for preparing pupils for examinations, including assessment, recording and reporting for these. This does not include the invigilation of examinations, unless there is a need for their professional skills and judgement.

All teachers should contribute to the selection for appointment and professional judgement of other staff, including induction and assessment; co-ordinating or managing the work of other staff assigned to them, including assisting in appraisal; and taking part in review, development and management of activities relating to the curriculum, organisation and pastoral functions of the school.

All teachers employed on a full-time basis, other than those on leadership spine, shall be available for 195 days a year, 190 of which will be required to teach pupils, and will be directed by the headteacher for 1265 hours in a school year. In addition, teachers are expected to work reasonable additional hours to enable them to discharge their professional duties effectively.
