Guidance Notes on Disability

Under the Equality Act 2010 you are considered to have a disability if you have 'a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect upon your ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'.

Physical and mental impairments include sensory impairments and Deaf Sign Language users. Mental illness is included if it has a substantial effect on normal day to day activity. Past conditions are included. Progressive conditions, such as cancer, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy and HIV infection, are covered from the point of diagnosis. Severe disfigurements are included.

Substantial adverse effect is more than a minor or trivial effect. Substantial effects of a disability, which has ceased but is expected to recur at least once a year, for example rheumatoid arthritis or epilepsy, are included in the definition.

Long term effect is one which has lasted, or is likely to last, 12 months or more.

Normal day to day activities are those which are carried out by most people on a fairly regular and frequent basis.

Full definitions of disability are available from <https://www.gov.uk/definition-of-disability-under-equality-act-2010>.
