

Secondary Teacher of Science (Physics)

MPS/UPS (Inner London) full time or part time

We are looking to appoint an outstanding teacher and creative leader to join our evolving team and be fundamental in shaping our all-through school. You will lead the strategic direction and development of an inspiring, cohesive, curriculum which will excite and prepare pupils for the next phase in their learning journey.

Woodmansterne has a diverse and vibrant community and as a school we benefit from this rich variety of cultures and traditions. We are looking to extend our team and employ exceptional staff who share our values and determination to ensure that our young people receive a first-class education.

We are looking for an excellent Teacher of Science (Physics) with:

- very high expectations of what can be achieved;
- a proven track record in raising pupil attainment;
- an understanding of how children learn and the complexities of this process;
- the aspiration to work with young people, colleagues and parents;
- the skills to work successfully as a team member establishing effective working relationships and flexible working practices;
- experience of following direction and working in collaboration with colleagues, parents, pupils and the school community;
- strong interpersonal skills;
- a creative and innovative approach to school improvement;
- the ability to lead on the educational progress, achievement and enrichment experience (trips, rewards and clubs).

Our strong and experienced leadership team are committed to providing an exceptional and enriching education for all our young people.

Closing date: 9am, Wednesday 22nd February

Interviews: Week Commencing 27th February

To start: September 2023
