

Teacher of Social Sciences

[Full-time/Perm]

Salary scale – MPS/UPS

We are seeking to recruit a dynamic and committed Teacher of Social Sciences to join the Social Science team on a full-time, permanent basis. You will have the ability to teach two of the three specialisms including Psychology, Criminology and Sociology. Guiseley School is passionate about its Social Science department, and we're looking for an individual who shares our commitment to excellence and achieving the very best for all our students. The successful candidate will have a passion for the Sciences and will work alongside a team of specialised teachers to ensure we challenge our students appropriately. Further details regarding the qualifications and specialisms can be found in the person specification.

We are a value driven organisation. Our key aims, core values of care, aspiration, growth and success sit behind everything we do. The successful candidate for the role will share in our child centred approach to care and ambitious aspirations for their growth and success.

We are interested in applications from both ITT students wishing to begin their careers at Guiseley School and substantive staff who are keen to further their experience with us. The successful candidate will be passionate about their subject and have a good knowledge of the national curriculum of at least two of the following subjects, Physiology, Criminology and Sociology and be keen to contribute to wider aspects of school life. Flexible working arrangements can be considered and discussed for the right candidate.

Guisuley School is full of exceptional young people. We have an active, visible leadership team, and a committed staff body. We are committed to the very highest standards of student care and achievement and seek outstanding staff who wish to be part of our success. We have a strong vision of success and achievement supported by an excellent professional development programme for all staff.

Guisuley School's campus offers state of the art buildings and an excellent working environment.

The start date for this role is September 2026.

The role is offered on a full-time, permanent basis. Full application details are available via our website: <https://www.guiseleyschool.org.uk/vacancies>

Please return all completed applications to: hr@guiseleyschool.org.uk

Closing date: Noon, Wednesday 13th May 2026

Interview date: w.c 18th May 2026

Our school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and upholding fundamental British values and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will be subject to a Disclosure Barring Service Check.

We seek to promote diversity and equality of opportunity - applications are welcome from all, irrespective of gender, race, marital status, age, disability, sexuality, religion, or faith. We also promote and practice the key Fundamental British Values to both staff and pupils.
