Executive Principal: Dr Dayo Olukoshi OBE

TEACHER OF SOCIOLOGY

Start date: September 2026

Brampton Manor Academy is seeking to appoint a highly committed Teacher of Sociology to join our nationally renowned Sociology department from September 2026.

Sociology is one of the Academy's strongest academic departments. We teach the AQA GCSE and A Level specifications, with consistently outstanding outcomes. Student attainment at GCSE and A level is outstanding.

The department comprises a dedicated team of specialist Sociology graduates. Students are ambitious, intellectually curious and highly engaged. Student uptake at GCSE and A level is very impressive.

We are seeking an ambitious and knowledgeable Sociology graduate who:

- has strong subject expertise;
- is committed to high expectations and disciplined classroom practice;
- thrives in a structured, high-performing environment;
- is reflective and committed to professional growth.

This post would suit an ECT or an experienced teacher. A TLR may be available for a suitably experienced candidate.

We offer:

- exceptionally motivated students;
- a calm, scholarly learning environment;
- strong professional development and clear progression pathways;
- Main/Upper Pay Range (Inner London);
- free staff breakfast and lunch.

Closing date: Monday 16 March 2026

Interviews: on a rolling basis
