Teacher of Sociology (Full time) OR Lead Teacher of Psychology for an exceptional candidate - Teachers' pay scales (+ TLR 2A for Lead Teacher)

Start date is as soon as possible but this is negotiable. However, the successful candidate will need to be in post by the Easter Holidays.

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic and expert Sociology Teacher. You will be an excellent classroom practitioner with a genuine passion for Sociology, able to lead by example and inspire our pupils to foster a 'sociological imagination'. Alternatively, as Lead Teacher of Sociology you will be expected to lead the development of the Sociology curriculum as well as make a positive contribution to the wider Social Sciences department. This is an exciting opportunity for a dedicated Teacher to develop their career within a school that prides itself with investing in teacher CPD.

The position provides the candidate to work extensively with our Sixth Form. At Notre Dame, our Sixth Form is large and vibrant, with almost a 500 student population. The Sixth Form adopts a comprehensive ethos and we have students attending from all around the city and surrounding areas. Last year 85% of students went on to study at university level, with 46% securing places at leading Russell Group universities.

The department delivers an array of subjects, including AQA Sociology, EDUQAS A-Level Psychology, Level 3 OCR Cambridge Technical Health and Social Care, Level 3 WJEC EPQ, Level 1/2 Cache Health and Social Care and Level 1/2 Cache Child Care and Development. The ability to teach another subject would be an advantage. We are based mainly in Oakbrook House which is the main hub for Sixth Form teaching.

Notre Dame is an Outstanding school. It is a nationally recognised Teaching School. Alongside this, we are heavily involved in educational research – leading on a number of regional and national funded research trials. From 2022 Notre Dame will be part of a new St Clare's Catholic Multi Academy Trust which will bring opportunities to work closer to other schools within the Diocese. The school culture is one in which is warm and welcoming. It is a place where both students and colleagues can flourish.

Notre Dame is a Catholic school with a strong ethos at its heart. All staff are expected to uphold and contribute to the ethos of the school, which is what makes it a special place to work.

For further details and an application pack please visit our website: www.notredame-high.co.uk or telephone the school.

Please state on your personal statement which post(s) you are applying for and your preferred start date.

Closing date for receipt of completed applications: 9am on Friday 9th December 2022

Notre Dame High School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children & young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be required to complete an Enhanced DBS Disclosure. In addition, this post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act and a self-disclosure is required for applicants shortlisted for interview.
