Queen Mary's Grammar School, Walsall, is an invigorating and rewarding place to work: the pupils are engaged and committed to study; the staff are intelligent, friendly and forward-looking.

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic, dynamic and dedicated teacher of Spanish to join our collaborative and flourishing department. Our ideal candidate will be able to teach excellent dynamic lessons, incorporating a wide range of ICT within their skill set. Our Spanish specialist should be a well-qualified graduate, whose degree includes Spanish language content. Alternatively, a native speaker, with a degree in another area or alternatively, hold, or be working towards, a Postgraduate Certificate of Education or equivalent teaching qualification in secondary education. Additionally, we would look at candidates who are prepared to work towards this.

If you would like more information about the role, please contact Simran Sahota, Executive Assistant by emailing s.sahota@qmgm.merciantrust.org.uk.

We strongly encourage informal visits to the school with the opportunity to meet prospective colleagues or if you would like more information about the role, please contact Simran Sahota (Executive Assistant) to arrange such a visit, by emailing s.sahota@qmgm.merciantrust.org.uk

Applications should be made using the recruitment portal on the vacancies page of our website and set out how your experience and expertise match the requirements of job description and person specification. Please read the information pack, which is also available on the job listing.

Closing date: Wednesday 30 April 2025

Interviews: W/C 5 May 2025

Queen Mary's Grammar school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people/vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
