The Modern Languages Faculty

Staffing

This is an experienced and successful faculty. We care about good Languages teaching, continually reflect on our own performance and together work hard to improve what we do.

There are, at present, seven full-time teachers and three part-time teachers working in the faculty. These include the Curriculum Coordinator who is Head of German and teaches French, a Deputy Coordinator who is Head of French, a Head of Spanish, and six other staff who teach either French/German or French/Spanish.

We have two Language assistants supporting in French and Soanish who help students to develop their speaking skills.

Accommodation and Resources

The department has ten specialist rooms. All rooms have interactive whiteboards. One is a dedicated ICT room with 32 computers. Most classes are timetabled in this room once a fortnight.

Schemes of work are based upon “Dynamo” for KS3 French, “Stimmt” for KS3 German and “Viva” for KS3 Spanish. We use the new 2024 Specification Edexcel textbooks and Activehub online platform.

For A Level we cover the Edexcel specification for French, German and Spanish.

There is also a considerable amount of additional teaching resources, both paper and electronic, that have been generated by members of the department.

The Department makes extensive use of ICT and has a good range of software and subscriptions to language learning websites.

Current Course Structure

French is the core language in Year 7. Virtually all students then study a second language in Years 8 and 9 - currently Spanish and German. Nearly all students (approximately 80%), study a GCSE language in Key Stage 4 and some take two languages at GCSE.

Performance

Students studying languages have enjoyed a considerable degree of examination success in recent years, both at GCSE and A Level and the Faculty has received favourable inspection reports from OFSTED.

All 3 Languages are offered at A Level, with a good uptake in all three languages.

Language Trips

There are regular trips to France, Germany and Spain, for Key Stages 3 and 4. There are also trips for A Level students.
