7. EMPLOYMENT CHECKS FOR THE SAFEGUARDING OF CHILDREN

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. As part of our commitment, we need to ensure that all potential employees satisfy our employment checks. Please note that where appropriate, shortlisted and/or potentially suitable applicants will be required to undertake further checks, including references, and will be required to provide a Disclosure from the DBS.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act

We will treat applicants who have a criminal record fairly and will not discriminate because of a conviction or other information revealed. Possession of a criminal record will not automatically prevent applicants from working with us. As part of the recruitment process any information revealed regarding a criminal record will only be considered in light of its relevance to the post for which the candidate is applying.

As you are applying for a post which is eligible for an enhanced DBS Disclosure, you are required to declare information on any convictions or conditional cautions which would not be filtered by the DBS in line with current guidance if shortlisted for interview.

Online Checks

In accordance with Part Three 'Safer Recruitment' of Keeping Children Safe in Education statutory guidance, and as part of the due diligence on shortlisted candidates, WeST will conduct an online search. This may help identify any incidents or issues that have happened, and are publicly available online, which the Trust might want to consider and/or explore with shortlisted applicants. Checks will not be carried out by anyone involved in the selection process and only relevant information relating to safeguarding or reputational concerns will be highlighted to the Headteacher/Principal/Director who will consider evidence to establish your suitability for the role to which you have applied.

References

Please give details of two referees, one of whom should be your current or most recent employer. If you are in, or have just completed full-time education, one referee should be from your school, college or university. Referees must not be related to you, or writing solely in the capacity of a friend, and must be able to comment on your skills and abilities in relation to the post. References are usually taken up before an interview or offer of employment, unless you request otherwise.

Guidance Notes on Disability

Under the Equality Act 2010 you are considered to have a disability if you have 'a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect upon your ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'.

People who have had disabilities in the past are included. Progressive conditions, such as cancer, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy and HIV infection, are covered by the Act from the point of diagnosis.

Physical and mental impairments include sensory impairments, such as those affecting sight or hearing, learning disabilities, and mental illness if it has a substantial effect on normal day to day activity.

Substantial adverse effect is more than a minor or trivial effect and goes beyond the normal differences between people. Substantial effects of a disability, which has ceased but is expected to recur at least once a year, for example rheumatoid arthritis or epilepsy, are included in the definition.

Long term effect is one which has lasted, or is likely to last, 12 months or more.

Normal day to day activities are those which are carried our by most people on a fairly regular and frequent basis. An impairment has a substantial adverse effect if it affects:

- Mobility
- Ability to lift, carry or otherwise move everyday objects
- Manual dexterity
- Speech, hearing or eyesight (excluding those who wear glasses/contact lenses)
- Physical co-ordination
- Continence
- Memory or ability to concentrate, learn or understand
- Perception of the risk of physical danger.

Anyone who is certified as blind or partially sighted by a consultant ophthalmologist, or who is registered as such by a Local Authority, is deemed to be disabled within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010.
