

Year 6 Teacher - Job description

All teachers are subject to the Conditions of Employment set out annually in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document. These detail the professional and particular duties required of teachers, together with requirements for Management time, Working time and Guaranteed planning and preparation time. The school complies with these requirements in order to make reasonable demands of teachers.

A teacher may be required to undertake the following duties:

Teaching

50.2 Plan and teach lessons to the classes they are assigned to teach within the context of the school's plans, curriculum and schemes of work.

50.3 Assess, monitor, record and report on the learning needs, progress and achievements of assigned students.

50.4 Participate in arrangements for preparing students for external examinations.

Whole school organisation, strategy and development

50.5 Contribute to the development, implementation and evaluation of the school's policies, practices and procedures in such a way as to support the school's values and vision.

50.6 Work with others on curriculum and/or student development to secure co-ordinated outcomes.

50.7 Subject to paragraph 52.7 (see below) supervise and so far as practicable teach any students where the person timetabled to take the class is not available to do so.

Cover

52.7 Teachers should be required to provide cover in accordance with paragraph 50.7 only rarely, and only in circumstances that are not foreseeable (this does not apply to teachers who are employed wholly or mainly for the purpose of providing such cover).

Health, safety and discipline

50.8 Promote the safety and well-being of students.

50.9 Maintain good order and discipline among students.

Management of staff and resources

50.10 Direct and supervise support staff assigned to them and, where appropriate, other teachers.

50.11 Contribute to the recruitment, selection, appointment and professional development of other teachers and support staff.

50.12 Deploy resources delegated to them.

Professional development

50.13 Participate in arrangements for the appraisal and review of their own performance and, where appropriate, that of other teachers and support staff.

50.14 Participate in arrangements for their own further training and professional development and, where appropriate, that of other teachers and support staff including induction.

Communication

50.15 Communicate with students, parents and carers.

Working with colleagues and other relevant professionals

50.16 Collaborate and work with colleagues and other relevant professionals within and beyond the school.

This job description outlines the main responsibilities and standards that are common to all teachers.

General Responsibilities

All teachers should

- Be aware of and play an appropriate part in implementation of all school policies.
- Be responsible for the safeguarding and welfare of the students in the school.
- Undertake the role of a form tutor.
- Participate in appropriate meetings with colleagues and parents/carers.
- Carry out a share of supervisory duties in accordance with published rosters.
- Set and keep high standards of punctuality and courtesy
- Attend assemblies and other formal occasions as required.
- Participate in the appraisal process according to agreed procedures.

Teachers on the upper pay range are required to meet the criteria set out in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document, namely that:

- the teacher is highly competent in all elements of the relevant standards; and
- the teacher's achievements and contribution to the school are substantial and sustained.

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task undertaken may not be identified. Staff will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from a manager to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description. This job description will be reviewed annually and the executive headteacher reserves the right to alter the content of this job description, after consultation with the post-holder, to reflect changes to the job or services provided, without altering the general character or level of responsibility.
