RIDGEWAY PRIMARY SCHOOL JOB DESCRIPTION - CLASS TEACHER

General duties:

To be responsible for the education and well-being of a designated class/group of children in accordance with the requirements of the Conditions of Employment of School Teachers, having due regard to the requirements of:

- The Early Years Framework or National Curriculum programmes of study and the school's curriculum plans and the school's pedagogic principles and contexts for learning
- The school's ethos, core values and School Development Plan
- School policies

Specific Responsibilities:

- To work closely with a range of professionals - external agencies alongside teachers, teaching assistants, SLT, and the wider staff - to ensure continuity and progression in children's learning across the whole school, in accordance with the Teaching and Learning Policy / Early Years Foundation Stage Policy
- To produce medium and short-term plans in collaboration with year group partners to ensure continuity of teaching across a year group, and in accordance with the school's policies
- To effectively use assessment (in line with school policy) to identify misconceptions, to track children's understanding and to effectively plan for next steps in learning
- To create an inspiring and well managed learning environment where: children are motivated and actively engaged in learning; where lifelong learning skills are introduced, practised and mastered; and where behaviour is managed effectively (in line with policy)
- To lead a subject area (once the ECT programme is achieved). These roles will be subject to negotiation as part of the annual review and development cycle, set out in the Performance Management Policy
- To act as a member of a task team from time to time, developing new curriculum initiatives, implementing and monitoring aspects of the Teaching and Learning Policy, and working on aspects of curriculum development within the School Development Plan
- To be aware of the well-being of others and share in the responsibility for managing our own well-being, and for supporting the well-being of other staff and children
- To manage the behaviour of all children in the school, working closely with teacher colleagues, teaching assistants and other support staff
- To commit to, and promote, the home-school partnership in order to ensure that all those involved in children's learning and development work closely together within agreed policies
- Have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the school, in particular: Health and Safety Policy, GDPR policy, and Safeguarding and Child Protection policy
