- To manage challenging behaviour safely and effectively.
- To understand and support students' communication needs – using visuals where necessary.
- To appropriately support lunchtime activities for students
- To establish and maintain effective working relationships with teachers, and other staff in the school.
- To be the key worker (Student Outcome Coordinator) for students on the SEND register as K students. This will include completing IEPs which are regularly reviewed as part of the school's Assess-Plan-Do-Review model
- To contribute to planning and assessment records where appropriate.
- To support students during co-curricular activities, including residential trips where appropriate.
- To communicate information about students' personal and educational needs to other staff and model effective strategies for supporting a student as and when appropriate.
- To be sensitive to the confidential information that is passed on in the course of the day, and pass on any concerns in accordance with the Child Protection Policy and guidelines in place in the school.
- To be in regular and ongoing contact with the parent or carer of the young person, forming a trusting relationship with them, listening to their needs and finding ways to support them through the young person's learning plan.
- To attend faculty meetings as directed by the line manager.
- As far as possible, to secure a safe working environment for staff and students.
- To carry out whole school duties each day including: on and around the school gate at the start and end of the school day; in allocated locations at break and lunchtimes, including in the school canteen; on corridors throughout the school between lessons.
- To support with school enrichment activities including leading on co-curricular activities and clubs before and after school and at lunch time.
- To support with supervision of detentions or the internal exclusion room as required.
- To work with outside agencies as appropriate, representing the school in a professional and positive light.
- To act as a behavioural role model to staff and students.

2. Teaching and Learning

- To support students to make good progress and overcome barriers to learning.
- To motivate and support students to remain on task and complete work in a focused, independent way, providing visual support where necessary.
- To help students with their organisational skills with regard to timetable, books, planner, homework and using the school facilities.
- To ensure that students with medical needs receive the required support to enable excellent progress.

- To assist the teacher in the preparation of classroom, resources and equipment for use by students.
- To provide literacy and numeracy teaching for students, and to help them to make progress in this area.
- To ensure that equipment or materials are suitable for the learning activities and prepare, design and adapt other materials where necessary.
- To assist the teacher in the planning and delivery of class activities.
- To work with individuals and small groups on specific activities under the guidance of the teacher and/or other lead person.
- To provide support as required for faculties outside the “home” faculty.
- To contribute to building effective in-class support through a coherent programme of CPD, observations (peer and monitoring) and coaching.
- To provide personal and academic mentoring for students.
- To support students with GCSE and A Level preparation and revision strategies.
- To support students to become effective independent learners, including supporting them by providing a supportive context for completing homework.
- To challenge young people to succeed.
- To track student progress, and report to relevant colleagues on student progress.

3. General

- To take responsibility for own personal and professional development, and show aptitude to develop further within and beyond this role.
- To undertake some invigilation duties during the examination periods, if required.
