Job Advert

Job Title: Teaching Assistant

Salary: Band D Point 5 to 6 (£25,583 to £25,989 FTE)

Appointment: Temporary for 1 year / fixed term / 32.5 hours / full time

Responsible to: Head teacher

Start Date: 1st September 2026

White Woods Primary Academy Trust was established in 2013 and is now a family of 16 primary schools within the borough of Rotherham.

Our vision is simple: all children, whatever their background, will be supported to thrive both academically and socially, developing the skills of lifelong learners. We believe in keeping the main thing the main thing — excellent teaching and learning — within a culture that is curious, collaborative, child-centred and challenging in all the right ways.

Our mission is to make every school an exceptional place to learn and work. We want children and adults to experience a breadth of exciting opportunities that spark curiosity, broaden horizons and build ambition. We believe that the best outcomes come when we combine high challenge with high support, and when joy, wellbeing and professional growth are woven into daily school life.

We are also proud to host a successful DfE English Hub and have a strong track record in developing effective approaches to reading.

We are now looking to appoint a Teaching Assistant who shares our values and can bring expertise, energy and commitment to our team at Anston Brook Primary School. The successful candidate:

- will be committed to our school and Trust vision and values.
- will be driven, proactive and positive with a commitment to continuously improving their own standards.
- are an excellent practitioner who is competent in literacy and numeracy.
- have a knowledge and understanding of phonics and early reading.
- can motivate and inspire children as active learners.
- hold children and adults with unconditional positive regard at all times.
- can build positive professional relationships with all pupils and staff.
- are able to work independently and as a part of a team with initiative.
- are punctual, energetic, well-motivated and flexible.
