This post is suitable for an Early Career Teacher and applications are encouraged.

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a highly motivated and innovative Class Teacher to join our energetic team at Casterton Primary Academy, part of Pendle Education Trust (PET).

The ideal candidate will be a dynamic practitioner who promotes and upholds the same high expectations as PET and may have a strength and passion in Music or the Arts. With a focus on sharing good practice, they will be committed to their own continuous professional development in order to continuously improve outcomes for the wonderful children at Casterton.

Pendle Education Trust is sponsored by Nelson and Colne College, an outstanding local education provider; this is a fantastic opportunity for an enthusiastic and determined Teaching Assistant to join an establishment where they can have a real impact on student aspirations and success.

The Trust offers unparalleled staff benefits, including fantastic professional development opportunities. Championing success and building student confidence, these posts offer a genuine opportunity for someone with enthusiasm to inspire children and make a real difference.
