- * Highly motivated to work in a school environment
- * Confident interacting with a wide range of personalities
- * Able to work independently and confidently with children and young people of all ages
- * Able to use their initiative and take on additional responsibilities as and when necessary
- * A personable and caring individual who is committed to providing excellence to children in their care.

We offer:

- * Motivated, enthusiastic children with outstanding behaviour, who are eager to contribute, learn and are highly proud of their academy communities that live out their Christian values.
- * Professional and dedicated colleagues
- * A thorough and robust induction programme
- * A welcoming environment
- * Opportunities for training and professional development
- * Supportive parents and Governors
- * An academy with a clear vision for the future.
