St Helen's is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and requires all staff to share this commitment.

We are looking to appoint a Teaching Assistant to support the classroom teacher and also to facilitate the active participation of 1 high needs child.

St Helen's is an outward looking Good primary school with a real sense of purpose. It plays a central role in the heart of Bluntisham's community. We are a small village school where staff and children are committed to working together.

The ideal candidate will be:

- Confident leading small groups and targeted interventions in a range of year groups
- Fully committed to the role of working alongside a pupil with Additional Needs
- Experienced in working with children with Special Educational Needs.
- Experienced in supporting children with emotional regulation difficulties
- Experienced at supporting children in developing their social interaction and social communication skills
- Experienced in helping children to understand risk and how to keep themselves safe
- Experienced in working with children with Social, Emotional and Mental Health needs
- Motivated, energetic and has a flexible and innovative approach to learning
- Passionate about providing the best opportunities possible for our children
- Committed to working as part of a hard-working and dedicated team
- Flexible and adaptable
- Calm and patient
- Organised and efficient

In return we can offer:

- a caring and supportive school ethos
- the opportunity to work with highly motivated staff
- Access to Education Mutual's employee healthcare and wellbeing service
