About St James School

We are looking to appoint a teacher driven by equity for all to join our team at St James School. It is an exciting opportunity for anyone who loves working with students, is passionate about their subject and wants to be part of a brilliant team of teachers and support staff. You will benefit from a resourced curriculum, coaching and fantastic professional development.

As a school body, both staff and students, we work every day to live our motto of Work Hard. Be Kind. We also place our values in our decision making, our actions and our behaviour. Our values are:

- Community
- Diversity
- Equity for All
- Kindness

We are proud of our school and our community. We know our students, our staff and our families are happy at school. Surveys show us we rate consistently above national averages for staff wellbeing and job satisfaction. We are currently a Department for Education lead school for behaviour and attendance, meaning we support other settings to help improve their approach to behaviour and attendance.

The best way for you to experience this is by visiting our school and meeting us. We welcome visitors, pre and post application. Please do contact Ruth Mingo if you would like to visit, or would like an informal phone call.

For this role, the successful candidate will:

- Be driven by the value of community - the fact that we are better and stronger together
- Believe that we should celebrate diversity and see this is a strength - both diversity in people and in thought
- Passionately advocate in equity for all and seek to remove barriers for those who need this
- Engender kindness in all they do

Does this sound like you? If so, then we would welcome your application. If you have any questions, please email hr@stjamesexeter.co.uk

Our professional development delivery model

Our professional development delivery is underpinned by our Education key concept (see page 8). We believe that professional development should build knowledge, motivate, develop techniques and embed practice.

At the Ted Wragg Trust, we are research informed and believe that it is important that everyone involved in sharing ideas understands the underlying rationale and evidence base. We ensure that professional development is:

Sustained

Frequency is critical, not time span

Practice-Based

Create new habits

Domain-Specific

Create new habits

External Expertise

Challenge the familiar
& refresh ideas

Professional Buy-In

Purpose & benefits
eclipse volunteering

We believe this slightly adapted model from 'Teaching Walkthrus 2', Tom Sherrington and Oliver Caviglioli is applicable to all professional development and will underpin the delivery of all our professional development networks, seminars and webinars.

Our Ted Wragg Standard

Our Ted Wragg Standard provides a minimum set of high standards across all our schools to establish clear structures, implement effective processes and hold each other to account to enable excellence. It is based on our three key concepts: Leadership, Education and Every Child Succeeds.

Key Concept: Leadership

We believe that great leadership:

Fiercely educates

Thrives in a complex system

Is locally enabled

Key Concept: Education

We have a clearly defined and articulated learning model that is understood by all teaching staff. This model of the learning process uses the concepts of Working Memory and Long-Term Memory. It draws on ideas from Cognitive Load Theory and the work of Daniel Willingham.

Key Concept: Every Child Succeeds

We believe individual development is well explained using Maslow; that an individual grows in an ecosystem and can be interpreted using Bronfenbrenner's work, and that we are interdependent.

We believe that to enable our children to live a life of opportunity, we need to understand what true inclusion means. To us, our model is based on Maslow's hierarchy of needs and the Bronfenbrenner's ecology of inclusive education.

Our Benefits

A critical part of our People Strategy is to ensure that we welcome and retain our great employees and ensure that they are supported both at home and at work.
