Job Details

Are you passionate about children's education? Are you looking to work within a primary school?

Our nursery is looking for an Early Years Teaching Assistant. Applicants should be passionate about Early Years Education and being part of a committed team providing excellent education for 2-4 year olds, as well as having a 'full and relevant' Level 3 qualification which can be found on this website (www.gov.uk/guidance/early-years-qualification-finder).

Hollymount School, as part of the Black Pear Trust, is an exciting place. Our motto "Inspiring Success" sits at the heart of everything we do for our children and our staff. Hollymount Nursery is a vital part of the school and is involved in all aspects of the school life. The position would be suitable for those who are looking to start a possible teaching career as well as those qualified to be a professional teaching assistant. The Black Pear Trust offers a comprehensive training offer for professional development and supports colleagues' interests and ambitions.

All positions are subject to a DBS Enhanced disclosure check. The schools and trust are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The trust is an equal opportunity employer.

To apply, please email vacancies@blackpeartrust.org for an application form. If you would like any additional information about the role or to arrange a school visit please email head@hollymountschool.org. School visits will take place on 17th April 2023.
