Facts and Figures: Give facts and figures that help to give a picture of the job. This should include any statistics relevant to the job, for example the number of clients supported, type and value of equipment, resources or premises for which the job has responsibility, size of budgets controlled or which the job has some impact on and, if appropriate, numbers of staff managed.
SUPPORTING PROCESSES
Problem Solving and Creativity: Give examples of the problem solving and creativity involved in the job. This should include resolving issues over interruptions to work deadlines, priorities and changing demands. How often do these issues occur?

On a daily basis, within prescribed school guidelines and under the direction of the teacher, develop a range of strategies to engage individuals and groups of pupils, often with differing requirements, in the experience of learning and in their personal, social, health and moral education. For example, a reward system appropriate to an individual pupil.

Use a variety of interpersonal techniques to establish supportive relationships with pupils, parents and carers.

Additionally, creativity energy and innovation are needed to meet the special education and care needs of all pupils, such as those with substantial physical disability, substantial emotional difficulties, regular exhibitions of challenging behaviour, including aggression.

Decision Making: Give examples of the types of decisions which the job has responsibilities for making, including where appropriate those relating to resources, budgets and employees. Show where there is authority of freedom to act and where there is an impact via recommendations or advice.

The key aspect is that at this grade of post the TA is working under 'INSTRUCTION'

To assist in decision making about individual learning priorities (in partnership with the teacher and other TAs)

Within the agreed school policies, guidelines and rules, decide on when and how to apply a range of strategies for the benefit of pupils in relation to their education activities, behaviour and care. These decisions often need to be made immediately to deal with the situation presented.

Guidance is normally readily available from teaching staff and more complex or controversial decisions will be referred to a teacher.

There will be often a need to make immediate decisions, without initial referral to teachers, in relation to immediate care, control and safety of pupils with special educational or personal needs.

Physical Effort and Working Conditions: Give details and the frequency of any special effort needed, including the prolonged or frequent use of IT equipment and describe any particular working conditions, other than those encountered in a normal office environment, to which the job holder is subjected eg noise, outside working, unpleasant surroundings.

A special school environment, although the job holder may be involved in external school activities, such as horse riding, swimming and educational visits.

Most of the working day is spent actively involved and physically engaged, with periods of crouching / bending to engage pupils in activities.

Substantial physical effort is required on a regular basis, to give pupils access to the full curriculum, in providing assistance to pupils with significant physical disability, and in some cases to those who challenge behaviourally.

There may be a need to physically lift pupils, to facilitate learning as identified in the school curriculum (e.g. music, P.E.) and to attend to safety or care needs. Risk assessments, detailing agreed manual handling good practice will be available for each pupil presenting a physical risk in these terms (the production of which is school priority). Until such a time when these are fully implemented the general advice received in training sessions should influence manual handling practice, supported by advice from the physiotherapist.

There are regular physical risks associated with intervention in incidents of challenging behaviour, including aggression, which are encountered with pupils who have psychological needs and / or physical disabilities.

Contacts and Relationships: Give details of the range and type of people within the Council or external organisations and including the recipients of services it is necessary to contact in order to carry out the responsibilities of the job. What is the range and purpose of the contact eg providing information or advice, directing, monitoring, influencing, motivating.
Contact with all staff in school to pass and receive information, advice, guidance, suggestions and ideas. Contact with Health Service professionals to provide support for the pupils with known medical conditions. To report summarised information to parents on, for example, pupil progress. Such communications can be of a delicate nature depending on a pupil particular needs.
Additional Information: Anything else which is relevant to the job which is not adequately covered elsewhere.
While the level of pupil needs will vary from time to time, the job holder will be predominantly working with pupils who are especially difficult to engage in activities, may present more frequent behavioural problems and where the attention span presents greater challenges and a need for high levels of patience to attain pupils' individual targets.
Knowledge, Skills and Experience: (To be completed by the Line Manager) The minimum general education standard, qualifications, training and level of experience required by the job holder to be fully effective in the job. Note that this information should relate to the requirements of the job and not what may be available from existing job holders.
Experience of working with children in an educational setting, preferably with experience on AEN. Qualities required are discretion, loyalty, commitment, patience, flexibility, good personal organisation, firmness, to be numerate and literate, a team worker and to have good oral communication. Background knowledge of the Foundation and National Curriculum and School's procedures and policies. Knowledge of pupils' individual targets and, where appropriate may require more specialised knowledge in specific areas. Significant empathy with pupils who have additional or special educational needs. Where appropriate, to be prepared to undertake special skills training e.g. signing, to meet additional educational and communication needs. A willingness to attend courses as required enhancing the knowledge, understanding and skills to improve the level and quality of support given to pupils and teachers. Knowledge of legislation and regulations applicable to the support and care of pupils. An education standard equating to GCSE grade C in English and Mathematics, a minimum A-C/Point 4 or equivalent is essential. A qualification relevant to supporting the learning process in schools would be desirable. A suitable qualification for this post would be NVQ2
I Agreed that the Job Description is a fair and accurate statement of the requirements of the job and understand that Fiveways School adopts a rigorous approach and is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment:
