Hackney New Primary School is recruiting for a high quality, dynamic and reflective Teaching Assistant to join our creative, innovative and inclusive team. As a member of staff at Hackney New Primary School you will benefit from belonging to Hackney New Primary School as well as be part of a wider support network of schools.

Hackney New Primary School is an outstanding and exciting new school striving to create something unique and special in the heart of London. We are distinguished by our commitment to music as a core subject alongside English and maths and our mission to keep the development of the whole child at the centre of our work. Our school community shares family-style meals together and works closely with local organisations to ensure the very best relationships with our community.

We are looking for a member of support staff to work with our teachers and children to ensure each and every child is happy and making excellent progress. We welcome applications from candidates with a range of experiences. The post could be ideal for experienced support staff or for graduates preparing for related careers or further study.

Notably, we are offering our pupils breakfast club provision and an extended school day. The role of the Teaching Assistant will include supporting the breakfast club provision.

Hackney New Primary School is part of Eko Trust, a Multi Academy Trust, currently made up of 6 schools. At Eko Trust, every member of our community is empowered to learn, to be ambitious and to be resilient.

- Our schools are vibrant and multi-cultural centres of learning.
- Our children are happy and love actively learning.
- We are proud of our schools and excited by what we can achieve together.

We provide:

- high quality, personalised induction;
- excellent tailored professional development opportunities which enable staff to develop their own practice and impact others nationally;
- a highly engaged staff who work hard together and thrive in a happy, friendly environment.

We are looking for Teaching Assistants who:

- strive to make a difference to outcomes for children;
- demonstrate good organisation, reflection and communication skills;
- value teamwork and are able to build strong professional relationships.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff to share this commitment and to undergo appropriate checks, including DBS. Hackney New Primary School and Eko Trust supports Equal Opportunities Employment.

Please note: CV applications will not be considered. Please contact Melanie Lewis (hnpinfo@ekotrust.org.uk) for further details and for an application pack.
