Temporary Contract (January 2022 to July 2022)

We have an exciting opportunity at Kaizen starting after Christmas. It's a two term temporary contract for an exceptional early years practitioner, to join our Reception team.

Kaizen is an outstanding school. Children are happy and love to actively learn. Our school is really important to the children and they leave with the resilience and motivation to continue their successful learning. We are proud of our school and are excited by what we can achieve. We have an amazing Forest School that is integral to our curriculum.

We provide:

- High quality induction
- Excellent tailored professional development opportunities which enables staff to develop their own practice and impact others nationally
- A highly engaged staff who work hard together and thrive in a happy, friendly environment.

We are looking for an early years practitioner who:

- Can make a difference to outcomes for children
- Has an enthusiastic and playful approach to to working with children
- Demonstrate good organisational and communication skills
- Value playing in a team and are able to build strong professional relationships
- Are excited by professional development.

Eko Trust family

The school is part of Eko Trust family of schools, which has seven schools across East London and Suffolk. As part of a high achieving multi academy trust, we offer a high quality personalised approach to developing all staff through coaching, mentoring and both internal and external training. We also provide financial support and safeguard time for staff development. Staff wellbeing is instrumental to our success and that's why we provide non-contractual benefits such as the Schools Advisory Service, who offer confidential wellbeing and medical support. We are also part of the Cycle to Work Scheme.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff to share this commitment and to undergo appropriate checks, including DBS. Kaizen Primary School supports Equal Opportunities Employment.

Please contact Lorraine Campbell to arrange a visit to the school.
