Kingfisher Learning Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust which was set up in 2016 and incorporates Kingfisher Special School, Halcyon Way School, Littlemoor Primary School and Medlock Valley Primary School. The Trust is planning to grow wisely over the next few years, looking to work in partnership with like-minded schools with a similar culture, be they mainstream or special.

The special school element of the Trust continues to grow with Halcyon Way now open and pupil numbers increasing over the next 3 years. Halcyon Way meet the needs of pupils with severe/moderate learning needs, whilst Kingfisher Special School continues to meet the needs of pupils with severe and complex learning needs.

Kingfisher Learning Trust is founded on respect for everyone within the Trust family by encouraging and celebrating diversity. With a creative and flexible approach based on high aspirations, there is a commitment to providing opportunities for learning in a safe, supportive environment. The Trust is ambitious for every learner to grow as an individual and develop knowledge and skills to contribute to society. Research and reflective practice ensures an ever-evolving innovative provision across each school that gives everyone a voice and an opportunity to celebrate success.

Aspiration – Integrity – Respect

Pursue the best – Be the best – Think the best
