We are excited to invite applications for a highly motivated, enthusiastic, and talented Teaching Assistant & Midday Supervisor to join our outstanding primary school. We seek an individual who shares our vision of providing a first-class education and instilling a love of learning in all our children.

Who We Are Looking For:

We are searching for an exceptional Teaching Assistant & Midday Supervisor who:

- Advocate for every child and actively promote inclusion, respect and equal access to school life for children from varied social, cultural, linguistic and religious backgrounds.
- Support classroom learning by adopting strategies that raise achievement and independence; deliver planned activities and give clear, timely feedback to teachers.
- Provide targeted support for children with complex learning and pastoral needs, contributing to individual plans and liaising with the SENDCO and outside professionals.
- Supervise children during the midday break: ensure welfare, safety and good conduct on the playground and in the dining area; follow St Ann's behaviour expectations and routines.

- Manage dining arrangements: encourage healthy eating, model good table manners, assist with toileting and handwashing, and clean up spillages promptly.
- Deliver pastoral care during lunchtime and across the school day: identify and report concerns, support emotional wellbeing and help children engage positively with play.
- Administer basic first aid where trained; record minor incidents and escalate serious incidents to the qualified first aider or DSL in line with school procedures.
- Promote positive play: organise inclusive activities, help children share and resolve disputes, and ensure children tidy away resources.
- Work effectively as part of the classroom and midday team, taking direction from teachers and senior leaders while able to work independently when required.
- Maintain professionalism: uphold confidentiality, follow school policies (safeguarding, data protection, health & safety) and report safeguarding concerns immediately.
- Engage in professional development via Trust CPD (Northwest Learning Partnership) and contribute to team meetings and school improvement activities.

About St Ann's:

St Ann's is an over-subscribed, two-form entry Church of England primary school with a strong track record of achievement, outstanding judgements from Ofsted, and excellent ratings from SIAMs. We nurture our children in a Christian ethos, placing them and their families at the heart of our work. Our children are encouraged to be independent, creative, and reflective learners who can self-manage, work collaboratively, and communicate effectively.

What We Offer You:

At St Ann's, we can provide you with:

- Fantastic children who have a positive attitude towards learning and demonstrate excellent behaviour.
- The support of a dedicated, committed, and creative staff team.
- The opportunity to be part of an exceptional school.
- A strong commitment to professional development through the Northwest Learning Partnership and NW3 Maths Hub, providing unrivalled opportunities for growth.
- An engaging, bespoke curriculum tailored to meet the needs of our learners.
- A supportive School Committee, Directors, and parent community.
