TEACHING ASSISTANT

We are seeking to recruit an enthusiastic and dedicated teaching assistant to work as part of our supportive and friendly team.

The position entails providing support for individuals and/or groups of pupils under the guidance of the classroom teacher. The role also includes supervising children in the playground at lunchtime. The successful candidate will be passionate about promoting children's learning and personal development and will be patient, adaptable and able to show initiative. Excellent verbal and written communication skills are essential. Experience of working with children or in other areas of child development will be an advantage to applicants. The school is committed to supporting the continued professional development of its staff.

Hours: 8.55am to 3.15pm Mondays to Fridays or to be negotiated
Term time only [38 Weeks]

Salary Range: Surrey PS3 [Pro rata from £18,013]
Fixed Term contract to end of Summer Term 2022
