WHO IS THE PROGRAMME FOR?

Are you looking for a gap year experience before taking the next step into University, College or the work place?

Are you interested in potentially working in a school or educational environment?

Then this paid internship is for you.

WHAT YOU'LL EXPERIENCE

You'll get a feel for life in a work environment. Your internship will give you the opportunity to:

- see what school life is like, discovering the power of education to transform young peoples' lives
- gain experience of work placed routines, behaviours and professional expectations
- become part of an experienced Special Educational team at Finham Park
- shadow High Level teacher assistants (HLTAs)
- have 1 to 1 time with the school SENDCO
- have responsibility for supporting students with a range of special educational needs, both in the classroom and in small group settings
- receive training in supporting students with a range of SEND
- attend professional development events throughout the year to match your own areas of interest and personal development
- have personalised careers support including a 1 to 1 session with the Head of 6th Form and application guidance as required
- have one-to-one guidance from the Lion Alliance about a career pathway into teaching

DURATION

Internships last up to a full academic year (Sept 2024-July 2025)

* duration can be flexible to accommodate gap year travel plans*

Contract Type: Fixed Term, 33 hours per week (9a.m. – 4.00p.m), Term Time Only plus 3 days.
