Dear Applicant,

TEMPORARY CLASS TEACHER MS1 – UPS3 (2 POSTS)
FULL TIME – 32.5 HOURS

Thank you for your interest in our temporary Class Teacher positions.

If you would like to work in a highly rewarding environment, where the smallest things make a big difference to children, are looking to get your career off to the best possible start in a rich and dynamic setting, or maybe you are looking for a place to propel you to even bigger career opportunities in the future. Then this could be the role for you.

Samuel Allsopp Primary & Nursery is a recently rebranded school with a new vision centred about the premise that every child CAN. The school's supportive, new leadership team are looking to recruit a holistic practitioner who will put our children first at all times, and support the children in their most formative years of school – Key Stage 1. The position is for a September start date and to cover Maternity Leave although, for the right candidate, it may be able to commence prior to the start of the new academic year on either qualified or unqualified teacher rate.

The successful candidate will be:

- A clear and engaging communicator in front of the children – someone who can hold their interest
- Able to hold a sense of ambition for all children in their class -even those who finding learning a challenge
- Confident and effective in delivering daily Phonics lessons
- Is flexible and adaptable in the classroom – in order to meet the needs of the children in front of them
- Speaks the English language confidently and has impeccable standards of spoken grammar
- Has a professional disposition and is research driven
- Has a restorative approach
- Someone who holds a 'can do' attitude and can be relied upon to put their heart and soul into our school

We can offer you:

- Dedicated staff members who put the children first
- A supportive Headteacher who is keen to provide opportunities for staff to 'grow' and develop - irrespective of experience or time in the profession
- Impeccably well-behaved children who appreciate the time invested in them
- Motivated children who have 'palpable enthusiasm' and a keenness to learn
- An environment that, over time, has a track record of propelling staff into more senior teaching positions

Now is an exciting time to join our school as we are on the 'cusp' of our hard work being realised, favourably impacting on pupil outcomes. Our whole school community is on board and willing to move school forward and there is positivity and real optimism for what lies ahead.

Visits to the school are warmly encouraged. Only by visiting will you appreciate the scale for potential and the delightfulness of our children.

To arrange a visit or request an application pack, please contact Sarah Tompkinson on 01283 247420 or email: office@samuelallsopp.staffs.sch.uk

Applications should be sent to office@samuelallsopp.staffs.sch.uk by the closing date below.

Application deadline: Friday 11th April @ Noon

Possible Interview Date: Tuesday 29th April

The school is committed to promoting the welfare and safeguarding of all children and therefore expect all staff and/or volunteers to share this commitment.

This position is subject to a criminal records check from the Disclosure and Barring Service, which will require all applicants to disclose details of all unspent and unfiltered spent reprimands, formal warnings, cautions and convictions in their application form. In addition, shortlisted applicants will be subject to an online search (including social media) as part of the school's due diligence in line with KCSIE (Keeping Children Safe in Education).

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Mr L Smith
