Teacher of Ethics and Philosophy

Temporary, 1-year, full time or part-time considered
September start
Main scale – UPS: £31,650 - £49,083

We are delighted to offer the opportunity to join Nunnery Wood High School, a successful, popular and exciting school. You will work with highly skilled and committed colleagues who have built a thriving Ethics and Philosophy department - a high achieving team that has built an excellent learning culture based on good teaching and strong relationships with students.

Ethics and Philosophy is a core subject at Nunnery; all students take the subject as a GCSE and this gives the subject value for students and parents.

Nunnery Wood High School is oversubscribed and enjoys a strong reputation in the region. Staff and students enjoy school life and staff voice extremely high levels of satisfaction with working conditions and leadership of the school. Staff enjoy many benefits including a slightly lighter timetable than is common and a school gym.

Recent Ofsted inspections describe both results and student behaviour as significant strengths. Our intake is broad, from the academically gifted to students requiring nurturing in numeracy and literacy. We are ambitious for them all and share a deep conviction that they should all reach their potential with us.

This is a fantastic opportunity for dedicated and driven professionals to join our team. You must possess the skills and determination to make a significant difference to the lives of our students. Applications are invited from both newly qualified and experienced professionals.

This is an opportunity to work in a thriving school where students, staff and parents work together to achieve something of which we are immensely proud.

Application forms and further information are available from the vacancies section of the school website.

Closing date for applications: Friday 6th June 2025, 12 noon.

All applications must be made on ETeach, or Gov.uk Teaching Jobs application form
CVs will not be considered.
