

Three Posts (TLR 3 at a value of £1,800 PA): Temporary TLR Teacher Post for

1. Early Years
2. Reading
3. Post 16

As part of our work to develop and devolve elements of the school's leadership to continue to drive and embed improvement, we are looking to complete the school's Middle Leadership tier by appointing a cracking teacher to lead each of these TLR areas on a temporary basis.

We are looking for dynamic and creative practitioners, who have interest, experience or expertise in the three areas of work. They will lead the staff team in developing and embedding exceptional approaches to teaching and learning throughout the school.

The Lead Teachers will:

- Ensure the curriculum, teaching and resourcing of the early years education provided is exceptional;
- Ensure that reading is prioritised to allow pupils to access the whole curriculum;
- Ensure the work that sixth-form students do over time embodies consistently demanding curriculum goals and the impact of the taught curriculum is strong.

By:

- Support senior leaders by contributing, developing and delivering plans
- Leading core areas for the school's work
- Participating in and delivering training to inform practice
- Working with colleagues to embed exceptional practice

All middle leaders will support the senior leadership team with the drive to raise standards. Regular dedicated leadership time will be provided to carry out these responsibilities.

Interested applicants are required to e-mail Matt Rooney with a supporting letter of no more than two sides of A4. Your letter should address the following question:

'What knowledge, skills and experience do you have to successfully carry out this role?

You will not need to complete a formal application form also.
