Details of the Role

Ratton School is actively in search of a highly motivated Tutor of Maths to complement our accomplished and dedicated team on a flexible, ad-hoc basis, with the assignment scheduled to commence post-Christmas. This pivotal role requires the successful candidate to engage students through tailored instruction, delivered either in small group sessions or one-on-one interactions. Seamless collaboration with class teachers is a key aspect of this position, where you will systematically identify areas for improvement, provide steadfast support, and develop personalised learning programmes to address individual needs, thereby establishing mutually agreed-upon outcomes that foster academic growth.

We extend a warm invitation to retired educators or part-time Maths Teachers, preferably holding a minimum of an AS level in Maths and, ideally, bringing prior experience within an educational setting. We actively encourage individuals capable of dedicating a minimum of a few hours per week, with an open welcome to those willing to contribute additional hours. Regardless of your specific circumstances, we enthusiastically invite applications from candidates inspired by the prospect of significantly contributing to the life opportunities and academic success of young individuals.

Ratton School, a nurturing educational environment catering to the academic needs of students aged 11 to 16, proudly maintains its status as a recognised good school with ambitious expectations for all our students. Our unwavering commitment to educational excellence is deeply rooted in the firm belief that every student possesses the inherent potential to achieve success and fulfil their aspirations.

As a prospective Tutor of Maths at Ratton School, you would play an integral role within our dynamic community, dedicated to not only academic advancement but also the holistic personal growth of our students. Your contribution would be instrumental in creating an environment where students are encouraged to explore their potential and aspirations.

Joining Ratton School means becoming part of a community that values and actively promotes a culture of learning, development, and success for both students and educators alike.

Application Procedure

Your application is pivotal, as the information you provide will influence whether you are shortlisted for an interview. The following guidance is designed to assist you in completing it effectively. This is part of our commitment to ensuring equal opportunities for job applicants. SDLT wholeheartedly supports the principles of equality and diversity in employment and service delivery. We aim to encourage, value, and manage diversity, recognising that talent and potential are distributed across the population. Promoting equality of opportunity has moral and social reasons, and it is also in the best interest of this organisation to recruit and develop the best people for our jobs from as broad and diverse a pool of talent as possible.

Please note that we do not accept CVs.

Early application is encouraged as we reserve the right to consider applications on receipt and to appoint before the deadline.

Personal Specification

The person specification is the list of criteria or requirements needed for the post. To be shortlisted, you have to fulfil each of the essential points, demonstrating your abilities by giving examples. The strongest applications will detail how candidates meet all of the criteria with examples, including drawing on previous experiences and transferable skills. Remember that voluntary work or work at home can be as valuable as paid employment.

Appointment Process

- 1) Suitable applicants will be shortlisted for an interview. Shortlisted applicants should note that online searches may be done as part of due diligence checks.
- 2) If you are successful, you will receive an email inviting you to attend an interview. It is therefore important that you give us your email address.

Pre- Employment Checks

The successful applicant will be required to:

1. Provide details of two referees who know you in a professional capacity, one of whom must be your current or most recent employer (for teaching staff, this includes the Headteacher or mentor at your placement if you are still training). It is our usual policy to take up references before the interview where possible. Employment is conditional on these references being deemed satisfactory.

2. Provide proof of all relevant qualifications (GCSEs and A levels or equivalent), degree and teaching qualifications.
3. Provide proof of eligibility to work in the UK.
4. Undertake an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check and receive clearance. Please note that an enhanced check will reveal all criminal convictions on record, including those that might be considered 'spent'.
5. Complete a Health Declaration form

Conditions of Service

Employment is subject to a number of pre-employment checking procedures – these are given above. For teaching staff, this post is also subject to the School Teacher's Pay and Conditions Document and the Condition of Service for School Teachers in England and Wales known as the Burgundy Book. The professional standards for teachers will also apply.

The job description may not necessarily be a comprehensive definition of the post and may be subject to modification or amendment at any time after consultation with the post holder.

Salary

Teachers, whether full or part time, will automatically be a member of the Teachers' Pension Scheme unless they elect to opt out.

Visa Sponsorship

We do not hold a sponsor licence, so we are unable to employ applicants who do not have the right to work in the UK.

Policy on Equal Opportunities

SDLT is an Equal Opportunities employer and appointments are based on the applicant's ability to meet the requirements of the position. Our trust schools oppose any form of discrimination against any individual or group and welcome the inclusion of a diversity of individuals from many races and cultures. Discriminatory behaviour based on race, colour, culture, nationality, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or religion will not be tolerated.

Safeguarding Notice

South Downs Learning Trust and all our academies adhere to all the national and local policies and guidance regarding Safeguarding Children and Young People. We are committed to ensuring the highest levels of safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All offers of employment are subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check, references, an online search, and where applicable, a prohibition from teaching check.

Living and working in Eastbourne

Discover Eastbourne: A Vibrant Hub for Work and Leisure

Nestled in the heart of the South East, Eastbourne presents an enticing blend of history, modernity, and natural splendour. Known for its rich cultural heritage and recent urban revitalisation, Eastbourne is a town that captivates residents and visitors alike.

Rich Culture and Natural Beauty

From the iconic Beachy Head to the town's historical treasures, Eastbourne offers a vibrant tapestry of cultural activities. Recent investments have injected a modern allure into the town while keeping its historical charm intact. More regeneration initiatives are on the horizon, promising further enhancement.

Easy Access and Connectivity

Embraced by a web of travel connections, Eastbourne caters to commuting professionals and day-trippers alike. Journeying to and from Eastbourne is effortlessly convenient. Whether by train—reaching London Victoria in a mere 82 minutes, or a short half-hour trip to the lively Brighton—or via the National Express service directly to London Victoria Coach Station, the town ensures easy accessibility.

Effortless Mobility

Navigating Eastbourne is a breeze, with an array of bus routes offering frequent services throughout the city. The 'Coaster' buses, tracing the scenic seafront and South Downs with multiple stops, including Seven Sisters and Beachy Head, make exploration a delight.

Charming Town Centre and Beyond

Eastbourne's compact town centre, adorned with Victorian and Edwardian architecture, invites leisurely strolls through wide pavements. The surrounding parklands and marshlands further enrich the town's character. Notably, the modern Sovereign Harbour marina provides easy sea access and serves as a gateway to international destinations by sailboat or cruiser.

A Lively Calendar of Events

Throughout the year, Eastbourne hosts diverse events, with Airbourne standing out as the world's largest free beachfront air show. This four-day extravaganza showcases thrilling displays from the RAF, USAF, and the renowned Red Arrows.

Highlights that Set Eastbourne Apart

Eastbourne prides itself on numerous accolades and unique offerings, such as its recognition by Time Out as the top UK destination in 2023. Boasting excellent connectivity, a stellar work-life balance against the backdrop of beautiful countryside and pristine beaches, the town cultivates an enterprise culture, fostering a thriving economy and quality jobs year-round.

Why Eastbourne?

- Superlative Connectivity: Access to high-speed internet
- Picturesque Balance: Beautiful countryside and beaches for an enriching work-life balance
- Enterprise Culture: A collaborative environment driving a successful economy
- Gateway to Nature: Proximity to Britain's newest National Park and the nearest to London
- Acclaimed Events: Award-winning spectacles like Airbourne and the International Lawn Tennis event
- Sunny Haven: Known as the sunniest spot in the UK
- Varied Demographics: A vibrant community with a significant population under 30
- Unique Offerings: Home to Europe's largest man-made marina, the Grand Hotel, and producing world-class Sussex Sparkling wines

Embrace the spirit of Eastbourne, where work and life harmonise in a setting that exudes charm, innovation, and natural allure.
