

Alwyn Infant School
CLASS TEACHER PERSON SPECIFICATION

The Person Specification is a picture of the knowledge, skills, experience and personal qualities needed to carry out the job. It will be used, alongside the job description, in the shortlisting and interview process for this post.

Knowledge, Skills and Understanding:

- Understanding of the full range of the primary curriculum and how to implement this in practice with specific knowledge and understanding of the KS1 curriculum;
- Understanding of current developments in education;
- Understanding of classroom organisation and management;
- Evidence of very good classroom management skills and effective behaviour management strategies;
- Ability to work as part of a team;
- Evidence of achieving high standards with pupils;
- Commitment to inclusion and understanding of strategies to ensure all children succeed;
- Understanding and experience of effective use of assessment to promote high quality learning;
- Ability to demonstrate and understand the purpose of effective planning, assessment and record keeping;
- Ability to effectively lead and manage a subject area;
- Ability to form good professional working relationships and demonstrate the commitment to work as a team member;

Experience and qualifications

- Evidence of high quality classroom practice;
- Evidence of relevant and continuous training;
- Have Qualified Teacher status.

Personal Qualities:

- Demonstrate professional conduct at all times;
- Ability to be flexible;
- Very good communication skills;
- Enthusiasm;
- Reliability;
- Punctuality;
- Flexibility;
- Sense of humour.