- has a strong working knowledge of the National Curriculum and is bold enough to insist on the highest standards
- is motivated, adaptable and has an eagerness to learn from and support their colleagues and community (also very important to us!)

We know that we can give you:

- An environment where you can learn and develop alongside an experienced team – especially if you are an ECT
- A school where a broad curriculum values all subjects and provides time and opportunities for children to make the most of their primary years.
- A busy, positive community where families are genuinely engaged and enthusiastic
