Headteacher: Mrs Ella Hughes

Year 1 Class Teacher (MPR)

Full-time only

(Temporary: 1st September 2023 – 31st March 2024)

We are delighted to offer a temporary class teacher vacancy to cover a maternity leave to join our year 1 teaching team from September 2023. This role is suitable for an ECT/NQT/RQT.

Our other on-line documents are an application form, letter from the Headteacher about our school and job description with person specification. You can also find further information on our website, which includes our most recent Ofsted Report, from 2019: <https://www.chapelstreetprimary.co.uk/ofsted>

About the Post

As a Year 1 class teacher at Chapel Street Community Primary school you will work as a team of three teachers in your year group. In addition to your year group team, you will work collaboratively with a Phase team that is led by one of our Assistant Headteachers (KS1 AHT) under the direction of our Deputy Headteacher and Headteacher. You will be further supported by the wider middle leadership team as well as colleagues across school.

In Key Stage One, each year group has two class-based teaching assistant in addition to an experienced team of specialist intervention TAs (SEND, SEMH, Speech and language, INA/EAL and Forest School) and a team of fantastic cover TAs. This is in addition to our wider support staff who lead provision around attendance, admissions, safeguarding and health and safety.

The specific responsibilities for our class teachers are outlined in the attached job description and are in line with the requirements of national Teaching Standards and the STPCD.

About the successful candidate

As with all posts we are primarily looking for the right person for our pupils, school and community. Someone with resilience, who will work hard, in a relational way, to raise standards and improve outcomes for all our pupils and can be flexible and adapt to changing need. Only candidates who can demonstrate passion and enthusiasm for teaching and learning, will be considered for this post. Whilst it is essential that you are a strong and responsive teacher it is also important that you can seek and act on feedback and are proactive in developing yourself as a teacher. A very clear commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion is essential – as is a commitment to our relational approach and nurturing positive, quality relationships with all.

Excellent team-working and organisational skills are also essential, as is the ability to work independently and a strong commitment to wanting the very best for each child. You will need a strong understanding of the unique strengths and challenges facing our community and pupils – and we will look for this within your application. We want our teachers to be passionate about working in our school with our unique children and staff.

Visits to school

Potential candidates are warmly invited to visit our school for a tour, to see for yourself why Chapel Street is such a special place to work and learn.

- Monday 5th June at 12.00pm
- Wednesday 7th June at 4.00pm
- Monday 12th June at 8.00am

We ask that you do not visit school if you are feeling unwell, have any of the main symptoms of Covid-19 or have tested positive within 10 days of your visit and would appreciate if you could let us know you won't be attending.

If you would like to book a place to visit, please contact our office team on 0161 224 1269 or via email at admin@chapelstreet.manchester.sch.uk.
