Welcome to the First Federation, please take time to read through the information on our website. We are looking to appoint a maternity cover teacher for a Year 3/4 mixed class at Colyton Primary Academy. The role will include 0.5 class teaching and 0.3 SENDCo. SEND experience will naturally be a requirement for the combined role. We are seeking to appoint someone who enjoys taking risks, embraces change, challenges the status quo, thinks creatively and believes in teamwork and collaboration. Please see the Job Description for more information.

The First Federation has been at the forefront of primary system change and wishes to continue to push the educational boundaries in order to improve children's lives.

If you want to work in a small, rural setting then this is the job for you. Where child centred learning is truly at the heart of our school values. We can offer you a supportive environment within a friendly team. With the added advantage of working closely with other schools across the Trust. You will be responsible for a class of Year 3/4 children, who are keen to learn and be inspired. Professional development is firmly regarded as a priority.

The key to a successful future of our children is leadership; Leadership which is never satisfied; Leadership which is innovative; Leadership which is creative and Leadership which is exciting. This leadership starts with you.

"Leadership for learning is not a destination with fixed co-ordinates on a compass, but a journey with plenty of detours and even some dead ends. Effective educational leaders are continuously open to new learning because the journey keeps changing. Their maps are complex and can be confusing. What leaders require for this journey is a set of interrelated 'learnings' looking at school leadership in a holistic rather than reductionist way. These 'learnings' can be deepened, elaborated, nurtured, abandoned, and connected and related to other 'learnings' as the journey progresses."
