- To pupils and colleagues for your own professional development
- To colleagues for their support and professional development
- To parents and pupils, to ensure effective and constructive home/school liaison
- To the Senior Leadership and Governors of the school

Duties

- Meet the expected standard of a qualified teacher as outlined in the TTA 'National Standards for Qualified Teacher Status' and to meet the standards of the Schools Policies
- Plan, monitor and evaluate lessons and activities that lead to the effective education of the children in your charge according to need and to develop in them the ability to take responsibility for their own learning
- Plan and mark work as appropriate
- Regularly assess, record and report on the children's development, progress, attainment and needs of each pupil in your charge
- Maintain effective records in relation to progress of individual children and of the class
- Identify able pupils and those with special educational needs, working with both the lead Teacher and parents to give effective and targeted support where needed
- Inform and consult with parents on a regular basis
- Work towards the development and maintenance of an effective and constructive partnership with parents
- Plan and liaise with support staff and other adults in class, deploying them where appropriate
- Ensure high standards of behaviour in your class, and share in the whole school responsibility for the well-being and discipline of all pupils
- Have regard to equal opportunities and inclusion at all times
- Communicate, liaise and co-operate, as appropriate, with the Headteacher, Senior Leadership Team, school staff and any representative of outside/support agencies regarding pupils in your charge
- Participate in staff meetings, in service training and other appropriate activities for the development of your own professional skill and knowledge
- Responsibility for an area of the curriculum
- Maintain a well-organised, safe and tidy learning environment and provide a high standard of display both in the classroom and around the school

- Awareness of Health and Safety by being responsible for duty of care for yourself and others at all times
