The Governors are seeking to appoint a full-time Year 5 Class Teacher from 15th April 2024.

Glebe Primary is a successful and popular school located in the London Borough of Hillingdon. We strive to provide a first class education for our children within a caring and supportive environment. Similarly, the school is committed to providing a range of opportunities for the children to enrich their learning. The school had a very successful Ofsted inspection in May 2023 and pupil outcomes have been consistently good over a sustained period of time.

We are looking for teachers who can motivate pupils and work closely with colleagues to raise standards in the school further. They should be passionate about learning and ensuring that pupils achieve well and make excellent progress. Likewise, candidates should be committed to working with parents and the wider school community.

We can offer:

- Happy, motivated and well behaved pupils who are keen to learn.
- A committed, supportive and friendly staff.
- A school that is forward thinking with high expectations of all.
- Opportunities for career development and progression.
- A brand new, purpose built school building.
