PROVEN TRACK RECORD

Thank you for your interest in the role of Year 6 Class Teacher (Fixed Term) at Filton Avenue Primary School. Filton Avenue Primary School shares a campus with Filton Avenue Nursery and Children's Centre although they remain separate schools. The former Infant and Junior schools merged to become Filton Avenue Primary School in September 2015. The school is part of Trust in Learning Academies (TiLA) with three other schools including Orchard School Bristol.

Our pupils are drawn from a diverse range of back grounds in the Horfield / Lockleaze area some coming from further away. The school aims to offer a rich, broad and balanced curriculum.

We have very committed staff teams across School. We have non-class based SENCo/INCo and we run a range of therapeutic services such as Thrive, as well as having a highly trained teaching assistant team who are able to deliver a wide range of interventions.

The Executive Headteacher is a Local Leader of Education and both Head of Schools are Specialist Leaders of Education as are a number of other staff.

We place a high emphasis on staff development and are committed to helping you develop as a teacher whatever the stage of your career.

ROAD TO SUCCESS

CLASS TEACHER YEAR 5 MATERNITY LEAVE COVER

JOB

The appointment is subject to the current conditions of employment for Class Teachers contained in the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document, the 1998 School Standards and Framework Act, the required standards for Qualified Teacher Status and Class Teachers and other current legislation.

The details set out below describe the main duties and responsibilities relating to the post. However a Document such as this does not permit every item to be specified in detail, nor does it direct the particular amount of time to be spent carrying them out, and no part of it can be so constructed. In allocating time to the performance of duties and responsibilities the post holder must use Directed Time and have regard to teachers' conditions of employment.

Principle Responsibilities

1. Teach children within the primary age range as directed by the Headteacher, keeping up to date with developments relating to the primary curriculum.
2. Plan lessons following agreed schemes of work to meet pupil's individual learning needs.
3. Use a range of appropriate teaching strategies to secure effective classroom management.
4. Make use of information about prior attainment to set challenging but realistic expectations and learning targets for pupils.
5. Assess and monitor pupils' progress and give clear and constructive feedback.
6. To carry out recording and monitoring of pupil achievement and the maintenance of records as required.
7. Maintain a stimulating learning environment and supportive educational ethos including use of teaching materials and resources.
8. Make an active contribution and follow policies and strategies for school improvement.
9. Take responsibility for continuing professional development and use the outcomes to improve teaching and learning.
10. To ensure the needs of children with Special Educational Needs are met and that all the required documentation is in place and followed.
11. To maintain good behaviour.
12. Supervise the work of support staff as required.
13. To work with the school policies and make contribution towards them.
14. Take responsibility for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.
15. Ensure the pupils make appropriate progress relative to prior attainment.
